David Woodhouse Community Award

SPCF invite nominations for those special individuals who have provided outstanding service (either through employment or volunteering) to make a significant contribution to the local community. The award will be given to that person who is judged to have gone above and beyond to make a difference, who builds relationships and communities and is an inspiring role model for others.

Nominations should be for:

- an individual (rather than an organisation); who
- works/volunteers in Sheffield;
- whose work or volunteering activities relate directly to supporting and benefitting parent carers in the city and their families;
- has a proven track record or outstanding activity.

Nomination rules:

- Nominations can only be made by members of SPCF.
- The nominee does not have to be a member of SPCF.
- Volunteers, trustees and employees of SPCF cannot be nominated.
- You can only submit one nomination.
- You cannot nominate a person you are related to.
- Self-nominations will not be accepted.
- The individual you are nominating must be agreeable to being nominated and participate in any publicity relating to the award.

Submission rules:

Nominations should be submitted on a nomination form, either by email or hard copy by the deadline which is mid-day, Friday 4 November 2022. By submitting a nomination form, you are agreeing to the terms and rules of this award.

Nominations must include:

- Name and contact details of the nominee.
- Name and contact details of the person making the nomination.
- Details of the activities for which you wish to nominate them.
- How this has benefitted the community and impact they have made.
- Why they deserve the award.

Completed nomination forms should be submitted:

By email to: enquiries@sheffieldparentcarerforum.org.uk

By post or by hand to: Sheffield Parent Carer Forum

St Mary's Community Centre
